Descriptif

The master of the circuits – this route has become legendary across the world over the past 20 years. Today you can take it on, in all its majesty with 10 climbs and superb scenery alternating between valleys and volcanic mountains. It's a stunning, impressive circuit and a challenging one. There are a few formidable surprises for even the most experienced cyclists along its 220kms but it's worth the effort for the breathtaking landscapes, rare flowers, cultirvated farming terraces and the usual warm welcome in the villages and restaurants.
